Staffing Update (June) – Woodpecker Class

Dear Families of Woodpecker,

I am writing to inform you that Miss Wyatt remains unwell and is currently signed off.

I am pleased to share that Miss Brewer, our supply teacher, will continue working with the class for the remainder of this term. We have also welcomed Miss Stephens back from maternity leave. She is already known to the children and will be working alongside the class.

From next week, Miss Stephens and Miss Brewer will job share the class teacher role while Miss Wyatt remains absent. Mrs Williams, the teaching assistant, will continue to support the class on a daily basis. Together, they will provide consistency and ensure the smooth running of the class during this time.

We appreciate that this is not an ideal situation; however, please be assured that we will do everything we can to minimise any disruption to the children's learning and daily routines.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support.

With best wishes,

Ashley Barrington-Wilding
